COMMISSIONER SARGENT IS DEAD

QUARTER CENTENARY OF ST. LOUIS COLLEGE

THE SILVER ANNIVERSARY OF NOTABLE LOCAL INSTITUTION CELEBRATED AT THE FESTIVE BOARD—CORDIAL AND EDIFYING SPEECHES AND DELIGHTFUL MUSIC—REMINISCENCES OF FORMER STUDENTS RELATED AMIDST MIRTH.

Under the management of the entertainment committee of St. Louis College Alumni Association there was a grand celebration last night of the quarter centenary of the college. It took the form of a luau in the beautiful dining hall of that institution. A large banner inscribed "Love" was hung at the head, and one inscribed "Unity" at the foot of the hall. Four large tables draped with ferns extended respectively across the ends and lengthwise down the hall, with two small tables set within the square bounded by the first mentioned. A sumptuous feast was spread and the menu was a beautiful souvenir, being printed on paper napkins of embroidery pattern with border composed of triangular flags in colored designs. Its contents were as follows:

GOOD-NIGHT.

The silver anniversary of St. Louis College dates from the arrival of the Christian Brothers to take charge of the school in 1883. Of the five pioneer teachers two were present at this festival—Brother Frank, who many years past has been principal of St. Anthony's school at Walluku, and Brother Francis, a member of the present faculty of St. Louis. Brother Henry, now the principal, arrived a year after the first comers. Brother Bertram, his predecessor went to San Antonio, Texas, three years ago. Brother Frank was present last night and good naturedly endured the relation of many stories from members of the alumni, among the speakers, relative to the vigor of his discipline over them. These tales out of school were accompanied by confessions that the relations deserved all they got—and more, even to being classed by their teacher as "schaf's kopf" (sheep's head.)

Senator John C. Lane was toastmaster and made an eloquent introductory address, full of affection for the Brothers and Alma Mater expressed on behalf of the whole alumni.

Bishop Libert sat at the right of the toastmaster and the Mission clergy and the Brothers of the college faculty were seated on either hand. His Lordship said grace over the repast.

Ernest Kaal was in attendance with his quintet and orchestra, the leader himself giving the solos. The Alumni quintet also aided in the musical program, which was a most delightful feature of the evening.

Space only allows a few gems of the oratory of the evening, which was cordial and triumphant in tone.

Brother Frank was the first one called up, being received with three cheers. He said he was not an orator but a simple old teacher. He was proud of all those fine young men. This demonstration showed the results of the efforts made to educate them and make them true children of Holy Mother Church. "I pray God," he concluded, "that we may all meet in a better world."

Brother Francis said he could hardly realize that twenty-five years had passed. He had never regretted coming to these islands, among its big-hearted people and these happy, intelligent boys. He agreed with every sentiment Brother Frank had expressed. Referring to the displayed mottoes he said love would hold the alumni together and make their unity count, assuring the success of their organization.

Bishop Libert said the word unity before them would give them all the secret of the success of St. Louis College. It had always gone ahead because the members had been united. He came here in 1881 and Bishop Herman soon afterward sent Father Leonor abroad to recruit Brothers for

ESTATE OF J. A. LOW

An interesting document was filed this morning in the Circuit Court asking that letters of administration be issued for the estate of James Alfred Low who died in the sixth of last January in Vladivostok. The property which is within the jurisdiction of this court, according to the statement made in the petition, amounts to $104,160.

Real estate at Waiakala and in Kona, Hawaii, is worth $2000 and $500 respectively. Four thousand shares of stock in the Honolulu plantation is valued at $80,000 and 400 shares of the Makaha Coffee Company is said to be worth $20,000. The only other property mentioned is 83 shares of stock in the Ewa Bottling Works valued at $160.

The following are given as the nearest of kin: Richard James Low, a son only a month old at the present time and born some time after his father's death; the widow, Barbara Low, now in Scotland with her child; Low's mother, Mrs. Emma Meyer, and his sister, Mrs. Lillie B. Matson. A. G. M. Robertson appears as the attorney for Mrs. Matson who asks that an administrator be appointed.

THE REGISTRATION

Registration of voters at Honolulu since last previous report has been as follows:

Noon yesterday—
Fourth District..... 35
Fifth District..... 33—68
Evening yesterday—
Fourth District..... 86
Fifth District..... 41—127

According to the figures given in this paper from day to day, the number registered from the Fourth up till this morning was 666, and from the Fifth 467, a total of 1133. The board however makes a count of 1154 to the close of last night's session.

Chairman Chillingworth again wishes to inform naturalized citizens that they must bring their papers, as the naturalizing court and the date have to appear in the certificate of registration.

A fine display of night blooming cereus blossoms on the Punahou hedge is expected to occur tonight. It is a fleeting show well worth taking the time people to see.

DR. OSLER, THE CHLOROFORM MAN

DR. WILLIAM OSLER AT TUBERCULOSIS CONVENTION.

Dr. William Osler, the regius professor of Oxford University, England, will be in the United States to attend the International Tuberculosis Convention which will meet in Washington this fall. Dr. Osler, who is noted for the brilliancy of his intellectual attainments, aside from his high standing as a physician, came into most prominent public notice as the reputed author of a scheme whereby men reaching 60 years of age should be quietly chloroformed. A few jesting remarks of Dr. Osler at a public function led to the world-wide circulation of the story. Dr. Osler's most precious boon to humanity has undoubtedly resulted from his work in awakening the public to the dangers and curability of tuberculosis.

S. S. ROMFORD HERE.

British S. S. Romford this morning arrived from Newcastle with 4,100 tons of coal for the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co. She is twenty-five days from the southern port and her voyage was without incident. She is of the company to which belongs the Ilford which passed this island yesterday morning, headed south.

FATHER OF RAILROAD ON ISLAND OF OAHU

B. F. DILLINGHAM REACHES SIXTY-FOURTH MILESTONE OF LIFE—THIS IS ALSO THE NINETEENTH ANNIVERSARY OF FIRST TRAIN ON OAHU RAILWAY—ATTORNEY RAWLINS ALSO HAS A BIRTHDAY FULL OF HONORS.

Today, September 4, is a birthday in Honolulu which has meant a good deal to the town. Sixty-four years ago today B. F. Dillingham, who was the promoter and builder of the Oahu railroad was born. Nineteen years ago today the first train was run on the road which has done so much to bring Honolulu to its present state of prosperity.

Mr. Dillingham, as hale and hearty as many a man twenty years younger, is still in active business life, though at present taking a vacation in California. Besides the part which he took in the building of the railroad on this island he was also the leading spirit in the building of the Hilo railroad and has been connected with, done as much as any one man in Hawaii toward building up the commercial interests of the Territory. Another well known citizen who celebrates today as the anniversary of his birth is Assistant U. S. District Attorney W. T. Rawlins. He has hardly reached the same mark as Mr. Dillingham being thirty years of age today. In that time he has been the District Attorney, under the County Act of 1903, Deputy Attorney General, Deputy High Sheriff, second judge of the District Court of Honolulu, referee in bankruptcy and member of the Legislature besides holding his present position for nearly a year.

FRIEND OF HAWAII PASSES AWAY IN WASHINGTON

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 4.—Frank Pierce Sargent, United States Commissioner of Immigration died here this morning.

Commissioner Sargent was born in East Orange, Vt., on November 18, 1854. He started life as a locomotive engineer and became chief of the Brotherhood of that craft, holding this position from 1885 to 1902. In 1898 he was appointed to the National Industrial Commission from which he soon after resigned. He declined an appointment as chief of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing in Washington at the hands of President McKinley and on July 1, 1902, was appointed Commissioner-General of Immigration.

Mr. Sargent visited Hawaii about a year ago and took a great interest in the labor matters here. He was one of Hawaii's best friends in Washington and assisted legislation in favor of this Territory in every possible manner. Sargent had many friends in Honolulu.

R. L. Halsey, acting Inspector in charge at Honolulu Immigrant Station, this afternoon uttered the following tribute to the memory of his late chief:
